The Minister of Justice, Henrk Swiatkowski, who has been re-elected to the Politburo and to the Central Committee of the Party, is only a figurehead without authority in his ministry. Actual power is concentrated in the hands of the Attorney General, (fnu) Kalinowski, who is in charge of both civil and military prosecution. He is a veteran Communist but has no legal training, and for this reason his assistant for civil prosecution, (fnu) Podlaski, has a great deal of authority. The other assistant of the Attorney General is the Military Prosecutor, General Zarakowski, who receives instructions also from the Minister of Defense, Marshal Konstantin Rokossowski.
